----	-------------------	--	--

	Examination system, Year / Sem	The performance of the students in each course in each term shall be evaluated through quizzes, assignments, exercises, class-participation, presentations, projects, short tests, etc., in addition to a mid-term examination and an end-term examination. The respective instructors will inform the combination of the evaluation components and the weightages thereof. As stated in the detailed course outline, the objective of the evaluation, apart from ensuring that students attain the necessary minimum standards, is also to help the students to improve their performance in the courses. Therefore, the evaluation components shall be arranged so that the students get feedback on their performance at regular intervals. Every full credit course may have at least three clearly visible evaluation components and two such components of evaluation for every half-credit course. Grading The grading system will be based on the five-point scale listed below. A Excellent B Good C Satisfactory D Low Pass F Fail Besides, plus (+) and minus (-) signs against A, B, C and D may be added to indicate varying degrees of performance. Minimum Standards (i) In each term, a student must obtain a Grade Point Average (GPA)¹ of not less than 2.0; and (ii) should not obtain “D” grades in more than two courses; and (iii) should not obtain “F” in more than one course; and (iv) should have cleared any incomplete (I) grade in any course in a term
--	--------------------------------	--	--

Clarification: If a student obtains “D” in two courses then she/he should not obtain “F” in any 16 other course. If a student obtains “F” in one course, then she/he should not obtain “D” in any other course.
